Murgon Parish – History of its Churches
by Fr. D.W. Martin

The parish of Murgon was established in May 1927.
Excised from Nanango and originally centred at Goomeri.

To Theebine Jct.

Woolooga
(St Francis Xavier, 1920)

Kilkivan
(St Kevin, 1896, 1926)

Kilkivan and Woolooga
were once part of Gympie

Proston
(Our Lady of Perpetual Succour, 1935)

Windera

Goomeri
(St Kevin see note)

Church built in Nanango in 1899 as Our Lady
Help of Christians and moved to Goomeri around 1918 and became St Kevin's. The building fell into neglect and the 1926-built St Kevin's from Kilkivan was moved down to replace it.

Murgon
(St Joseph's, 1918 and 1979)

50 miles to Murgon

Cherbourg
(St Peter Claver, 1962)

The hall at Cherbourg was originally St Patrick's at Wooroolin, opened by J. Duhig on November 9, 1913, as part of the Nanango Parish.

Durong
(Sacred Heart, 1966)

Wondai
(St John, 1913)

Wooroolin
(St Patrick, 1913)   moved to Cherbourg for hall in 1972

Kingaroy and Kumbia
form one parish

Nanango, Yarraman, Cooyar
and Blackbutt form one parish

Kumbia
(Queen of Peace, 1919)

Kingaroy
(St Mary's, 1909,)

Tarong

Nanango
(St George and Our Lady
Help of Christians, 1870 1899, 1918)

Towns

Murgon Parish Boundary

Railway

Road